Plano-based Granite Properties bought its first office building 20 years and while the market has changed in that time, the company's philosophy has not. It's all about relationships, COO Greg Fuller said.

That first building was the Gateway Tower at LBJ Freeway and North Central Expressway.

The company will officially celebrate its 20th anniversary on Oct. 1, and now has 8 million square feet of property in Texas,

Colorado, and Atlanta, Ga.

Granite's latest acquisition was 3333 Lee Parkway, a 12-story office building in Uptown.
