NTCAR to induct Gerald Hines, Jeff Hines, Michael Dardick in Hall of Fame

Dallas Business Journal by Candace Carlisle, Staff Writer

Date: Monday, March 5, 2012, 11:57am CST

Related:

Commercial Real Estate, Dallas

Candace Carlisle
Staff Writer - Dallas Business Journal
Email

The North Texas Commercial Association of Realtors (NTCAR) plan to induct father-son duo Hines">Gerald   Hines and Jeff Hines — who together lead Hines — and Michael W. Dardick, president and CEO of Granite Properties   , into its Hall of Fame.

Gerald Hines founded Hines 55 years ago and is the chairman of Houston-based Hines, which one of the world's largest international commercial real estate firms. His son Jeff is the president and CEO of the firm.

Dardick is being inducted into the Hall of Fame for having made a significant impact on the Dallas-Fort Worth commercial real estate industry.

"We are extremely honored to add Gerald and Jeff Hines and Michael Dardick to our roster of real estate legends who've shaped North Texas and beyond in a significant way," said Greg Cannon, chairman of the 2012 Hall of Fall event, in a written statement.

"All three men are admired not only for their visionary leadership and remarkable business acumen but for their ability to inspire and motivate those who work with and for them."

Dan Beaird, founder and partner of Beaird Commercial Realty, will be honored that evening with the Michael F. McAuley Lifetime Achievement Award for outstanding community service.

Beaird is being honored based on his strong moral compass to serve in the community and making the world a better place to live, said Robert Grunnah, chairman emeritus of the Hall of Fame Committee.

NTCAR's Hall of Fame's 25th annual dinner and reunion is scheduled for April 26th at the Brook Hollow Golf Club.

Candace covers commercial and residential real estate and sports business.